STUDENTS

2018–2019

WELCOME!

At Clackamas Community College, we believe every student has the right to achieve their full potential. And we welcome all of you, no matter who you are or where you come from. Your contributions are what make Clackamas a community college.

The physical safety and emotional well-being of all students at the college, and ensuring that our campuses are safe and inviting for all students and their families, is paramount to student success.

We are committed to making your educational experience engaging, enlightening and safe. Please reach out to faculty and staff with questions and concerns.

We are here to support you.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO...

- Not open a door to law enforcement.
- Ask to see a search warrant without opening a door.
- Remain silent.
- Speak with a lawyer.
- Not sign any document before speaking with a lawyer.

YOUR RIGHTS AT CCC

- The college strictly follows the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), which pertains to the privacy and confidentiality of your directory information and academic record.
- Directory information includes enrollment status, verification of certificate or degree award, residency status (where you currently live), major and athletic participation.
- The college does not ask or require of students your immigration status or that of your family.
- The college will not release non-directory (see first bullet) information unless legally compelled to do so or if you have provided consent to do so. Non-directory information will be provided as required for international students on an I-20.
- Campus safety officers do not have the authority to and will not enforce federal immigration laws.
