

Alternative and/or Supplemental Coursework

High School Connections

Clackamas Community College (CCC) has four High School Connections programs designed specifically for high school students. High School Connections programs provide low cost/no cost college credit opportunities in partnership with area high schools. To learn more about college credit options within area high schools visit www.clackamas.edu/highschoolconnections or call 503-594-3161.

Adult High School Diploma and GED®

CCC offers alternative high school completion options for students who are at least 16 years old. High school aged students must be released or referred by their high school to participate. The college has an Adult High School Diploma program which provides students the opportunity to complete a high school diploma at CCC. The college also offers day and evening GED preparation classes in both English and Spanish. To learn more about the Adult High School Diploma and the GED® visit www.clackamas.edu/academics/academic-offerings/ged-adult-programs or call 503-594-3028 (English), 503-594-3029 (Spanish).

Charter Schools

High school students who are seeking alternatives to comprehensive high schools have options to enroll with charter schools. For more information about area charter schools that partner with CCC, contact us at 503-594-3161 or hsconnections@clackamas.edu.

Home School

Planning to home school a child? Parents/guardians of students who live in Clackamas County and plan to home school their child, must register with Clackamas Education Service District (ESD) within 10 days of withdrawing their child from school. To learn more about home schooling and registering your student, visit www.clackesd.org/home-school or call 503-675-4031.

Taking Classes at CCC While Still in High School

Students still in high school are welcome to take college courses at CCC! Students should follow the Getting Started Steps and do not need to go through a special process to take general classes at CCC unless they are under 16. Students under the age of 16 who wish to take a class must complete an “Under 16 Enrollment Consent” form to register for classes. The form, is linked above, and available at www.clackamas.edu/forms. Students without a GED or high school diploma are responsible for paying full tuition and fees and are not eligible for financial aid or scholarships. CCC tuition and fees are available at <https://www.clackamas.edu/admissions-financial-aid/tuition-fees>.
